- The Conference / Keynote PCO acting as booking office for INQUA 2019 and the committees will not be held liable for any loss or damage of personal items of attendees or injury caused at any venue used in connection with the conference.
- INQUA 2019 committee and Keynote PCO (The Organisers) reserve the right to alter any of the programme or other arrangements for this symposium; including cancellation or postponement of the event should unforeseen circumstances require it. The organisers accept no responsibility for resulting costs or inconvenience to participants in this case.
- The Organisers do not accept responsibility for any inconvenience or costs due to non-availability of accommodation, tours or social events.
- Children/Minors must be accompanied by an adult/guardian at all times, who accepts full liability for this child/minor. Note that the conference and all social events and activities have not been planned with children/minors in attendance and must be flagged to the conference office prior to making any booking arrangements. You may be refused entry should prior notice not be provided.
- Fáilte Ireland's MICE Supports Fund is primarily intended to help increase the number of international delegates travelling into the Republic of Ireland specifically to attend a conference. As a result, support is only payable in respect of international delegate conference numbers. It is necessary, therefore, for Fáilte Ireland to spot check attendance by obtaining attendees contact details from you within 12 weeks of the event taking place in order to comply with our statutory functions under Section 8 of the National Tourism Development Authority Act, 2003. With the coming into effect of the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) on 25th May, 2018, Fáilte Ireland requires that the grantee inform all intending delegates in advance that the following data: name, country of origin and email address will be shared with the National Tourism Development Authority (Fáilte Ireland) having its principal office at 88-95 Amiens Street, Dublin 1) as a funder of the event for the purpose of verifying attendance at the event only as required under Section 8 of the National Tourism Development Authority Act, 2003 and that this data will be retained for a maximum of 12 months or until the completion of the external audit relating to that year whichever is the later. Thereafter, the details will be destroyed in a secure manner.

Important Information for Fieldtrip Attendees to Note:

- Attendees are responsible for arranging their own travel between the trips and the INQUA Congress in Dublin.
- Attendees should purchase their own travel insurance to cover for any accidents, delayed flights, costs of missing the departure rendezvous etc.
- All tours are subject to minimum numbers being met. We urge attendees of the pre- and post-congress tours not to finalise your travel arrangements until after the field trip has been confirmed at the end of March 2019 to ensure that minimum numbers are secured and the tour will take place.
- The QRA, IQUA, Keynote PCO and the INQUA 2019 Congress are not responsible for any costs incurred by participants due to cancellation of non-viable field trips.
- All trips will depart and/or begin at the scheduled time. Please note that trip departures from meeting designated points cannot be delayed for no shows or latecomers.
- No refunds will be made for delegates who miss their designated departure time.
- Delegates who register for a tour or fieldtrip agree that registration information (name, email address and phone number) will be provided to the field trip co-ordinating leader only, in order for them to liaise directly with attendees regarding their specific tour/field trip. All personal information will be disposed of by data recipients immediately following the scheduled trip.
- All field trip instructions and content will be given in English only.
- All field trip attendees must purchase IQUA membership for 2019 at a cost of €20.
